ARENDSVILLE FIRE COMPANY BUYS PUMPER

The Arendtsville fire company has purchased a new Bean high pressure fog system pumper, described as the latest thing in modern fire-fighting equipment. It was learned today.

The purchase price was not disclosed. Delivery will be made next month.

When the machine is ready to be brought here Clyde Allison, E. D. Bushman and Clifford Hartzell of the Arendtsville fire company will be flown to Lansing, Michigan, by LeRoy Zeigler, another member of the fire company. At Lansing the three will undergo a two day period of instruction in handling the equipment before they drive the new fire truck home.

Serve Large Area

The new equipment will bring to three the number of large pieces usable by the company and will be the second engine owned by the department. The present fire engine is an I. H. C. Boyer apparatus equipped with 1500 feet of 2½ inch hose and 500 feet of 1½ inch hose. In addition the company has for use a large fruit sprayer loaned by the Arendtsville fruit laboratory which can be used as a pump to throw water on fires.

One of the principal reasons for obtaining a new engine at this time is the slowness of the old engine, company officials said. The company serves a large area extending up through The Narrows and thus needs a high speed truck.

The new engine will be demonstrated at the "Mardi Gras" to be held by the company at the Arendtsville fair grounds on Halloween night.

COUNTY YOUTH ESCAPES AFTER COURT HEARING

State police are continuing their search in the Franklin-Adams county area for William Junior Metz, 22, of Orrtanna R. 2, who escaped after his arraignment on a charge of assault of a 12-year-old Fayetteville R. 1 girl.

Metz was accused in an information filed before Magistrate S. M. Kohler, of Fayetteville, by Mrs. Mary Shiffert, the girl's mother. As he was being removed from the magistrate's office to the county jail following his arraignment Tuesday night, he allegedly escaped from Constable R. N. Renfrew, of Fayetteville, who had served the warrant. State police of the Chambersburg and Gettysburg substations are seeking him.

The girl told her mother that Metz attacked her in his automobile at Mont Alto state park Saturday night. The couple, who had met apparently without prearrangement, at the home of a mutual friend in Quincy, had gone to the park with two other young couples. The alleged attack was committed in the absence of the other four young people, police were informed.

Escapes In Darkness

Mrs. Shiffert told Magistrate Kohler that she learned of the alleged offense on Monday, the day the charge was filed. Magistrate Kohler said Constable Renfrew had some difficulty locating Metz and he was not arraigned until late the following night. As Constable Renfrew held the door of the Renfrew car open for him, Metz fled in the darkness.

State police located Metz' car on a road near Fayetteville and impounded it.

Metz was described as being five-feet, nine inches tall and weighing 160 pounds. He has brown hair. Several of his lower front teeth are missing, police said they learned from pictures found in the glove compartment of the Metz car and identified by Metz' mother and brother.

ARENDSVILLE FIRE COMPANY BUYS PUMPER

The Arendtsville fire company has purchased a new Bean high pressure fog system pumper, described as the latest thing in modern fire-fighting equipment, it was learned today.

The purchase price was not disclosed. Delivery will be made next month.

When the machine is ready to be brought here Clyde Allison, E. D. Bushman and Clifford Hartzell of the Arendtsville fire company will be flown to Lansing, Michigan, by LeRoy Zeigler, another member of the fire company. At Lansing the three will undergo a two day period of instruction in handling the equipment before they drive the new fire truck home.

Serve Large Area

The new equipment will bring to three the number of large pieces usable by the company and will be the second engine owned by the department. The present fire engine is an I. H. C. Boyer apparatus equipped with 1500 feet of 2 1/2 inch hose and 500 feet of 1 1/2 inch hose. In addition the company has for use a large fruit sprayer loaned by the Arendtsville fruit laboratory which can be used as a pumper to throw water on fires.

One of the principal reasons for obtaining a new engine at this time is the slowness of the old engine, company officials said. The company serves a large area extending up through The Narrows and thus needs a high speed truck.

The new engine will be demonstrated at the "Mardi Gras" to be held by the company at the Arendtsville fair grounds on Halloween night.

COUNTY YOUTH ESCAPES AFTER COURT HEARING

State police are continuing their search in the Franklin-Adams county area for William Junior Metz, 22, of Orrtanna R. 2, who escaped after his arraignment on a charge of assault of a 12-year-old Fayetteville R. 1, girl.

Metz was accused in an information filed before Magistrate S. M. Kohler, of Fayetteville, by Mrs. Mary Shifflet, the girl's mother. As he was being removed from the magistrate's office to the county jail following his arraignment Tuesday night, he allegedly escaped from Constable R. N. Renfrew, of Fayetteville, who had served the warrant. State police of the Chambersburg and Gettysburg substations are seeking him.

The girl told her mother that Metz attacked her in his automobile at Mont Alto state park Saturday night. The couple, who had met apparently without prearrangement, at the home of a mutual friend in Quincy, had gone to the park with two other young couples. The alleged attack was committed in the absence of the other four young people, police were informed.

Escapes In Darkness

Mrs. Shifflet told Magistrate Kohler that she learned of the alleged offense on Monday, the day the charge was filed. Magistrate Kohler said Constable Renfrew had some difficulty locating Metz and he was not arraigned until late the following night. As Constable Renfrew held the door of the Renfrew car open for him, Metz fled in the darkness.

State police located Metz' car on a road near Fayetteville and impounded it.

Metz was described as being five-feet, nine inches tall and weighing 160 pounds. He has brown hair. Several of his lower front teeth are missing, police said they learned from pictures found in the glove compartment of the Metz car and identified by Metz' mother and brother.

PREPARING FOR BIG LABOR DAY

(By The Associated Press)

Pennsylvanians today began the mountain-seashore crusade that annually marks the Labor Day holiday.

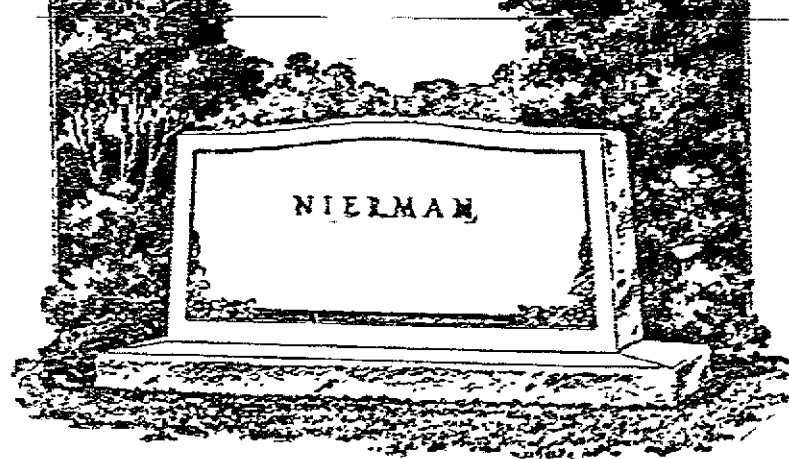

Railroads, bus lines and airlines prepared for a crush of travelers that may establish a post-war record for the three-day holiday period.

State police and highway officials, meanwhile, stood ready for a flood of automobile traffic that will—if previous years are any indication—result in a series of accidents and fatalities.

Although this morning found lower temperatures and fog reported in most portions of the state, the weatherman promised holiday travelers fair and sunny weather for the week-end.

A major portion of the traffic in the eastern and central portion of the commonwealth will be that

THREE ARE HELD FOR ABDUCTION

Binghamton, N. Y., Aug. 29 (AP)—Three men were being held today at the state police barracks at Sidney, N. Y., in connection with the kidnapping and robbing of a Boston bank manager.

State Police Captain H. A. Gay said the three, captured by troopers at gun-point last night after a chase on a wooded hill near Windsor, in central New York, were wanted by Massachusetts authorities in the kidnapping and robbery of Nathaniel D. W. Allen, 44, business extension manager of the First National bank of Boston.

The men, whom Gay identified as Edward Anderson, 19, Huntington, L. I.; John W. Jones, 20, of Williamsport, Pa., and Richard Barrett, 24, of Lynn, Mass., were held on a charge of first degree assault.

Gay said the three men fled into the woods after their automobile hit another car, went out of control and struck a group of children injuring one critically.

Gay identified Anderson and Jones as sailors AWOL from the USS Force, stationed in the Potomac river, Washington.

Allen reported to authorities at Lee, Mass., that three men surrounded him as he left a Boston restaurant yesterday, forced him to drive them 150 miles into the Berkshires and robbed him of $10.

Mrs. Sanders Guest At Surprise Party

A surprise party was held on Tuesday evening by the employees of the Strouse Baer sewing factory in honor of the birthday anniversary of the manager, Mrs. Henry Sanders.

The party was in the form of a corn bake and was held at Big Pipe Creek park, near Tanerstown. There was a birthday cake for the guest of honor and in addition to the refreshments, dancing and games were enjoyed during the course of the evening.

Approximately 90 employees and guests attended the party.

Says Church Too Well "Organized"

Albion, Mich., Aug. 29 (AP)—Too many ministers forget "their congregations are associating daily with the devil" and preach sermons "in a beautiful setting to people who are treated as saints," Richard Campbell, Altoona, Pa., insurance man told the National Methodist Conference on Evangelism.

George Truman of Los Angeles and Cliff Evans of Washington, D. C., after landing their single-engine, 100-horsepower planes at Crofton airport here yesterday, considered the ocean they'd put behind them and Truman declared:

"It's wide and wet, and, at one stage, it nearly had us locked."

This, he said, was when they almost missed Iceland because of clouds and "had to come down to 500 feet to find a hole that enabled us to get our bearings."

The two came here because of fog over their scheduled stop, Prestwick, Scotland. They left Teterboro, N. J., August 9 and stopped five times on the way to London. They

65,000 PARADE UP 5TH AVENUE IN LEGION SHOW

New York, Aug. 30 (AP)—Legionnaires, the serious speechmaking of their convention concluded with pleas for preparedness by the nation's three top military leaders, turned today to the "big parade" up fifth avenue with more than 1,000,000 spectators expected to watch the 65,000 marchers.

General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower, who received a tumultuous welcome of from the convention, coupled his endorsement of universal military training with a statement that "I do not want to be understood as seeing a global war as an immediate threat."

"It is fully as important to prevent blind hysteria and fear from influencing us as it is to look facts soberly in the face and thus develop logical conclusions from the survey," he declared.

No More of Gain
The wartime supreme commander and present chief of staff said that "no great nation is today in position deliberately to provide a long and exhausting conflict with any hope of gain."

"To work for peace and eventual disarmament, but at the same time to look well to our own security in a troubled world, is thus a central problem of the day," Eisenhower declared.

He added, however, that "as long as deliberate aggression against the rights of free men and the existence of free government may be a part of the international picture, we must be prepared for whatever this may finally mean to us."

"On our security," he said, "depends the existence and growth of a free world."

"The reverse of this statement is equally true. I firmly believe that the only prescription for absolute security for any nation, including our own, is international understanding and cooperation."

Farewell Appearance
Eisenhower described his address as "something of an official farewell" since it was probably his last public appearance as chief of staff before assuming the presidency of Columbia university in January.

Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz asked the Legion to act "as sentinels to see that no one branch of the armed forces is permitted to decline to the point where it cannot carry out its share of responsibility for national security."

Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, commanding general of the army air forces, who also endorsed universal military training, expressed concern about the air forces' replacement requirements.

Two Are Fined; 2 Cases Dismissed

Howard Moore, Marion Station, paid a $2 fine and costs on a no inspection charge laid by state police before Justice Harry Brinton, Hanover R. D.

Cases of no inspection brought before Justice Brinton by state police against Donald Keffer, Mosherystown, and Mrs. Charles Greiner, Hanover, were discharged by the justice.

C. E. Garrett, Hanover, paid a fine of $10 and costs before Justice Brinton on a charge of failing to yield the right of way brought by state police.

Republicans Plan Southern Primary

Columbus, Ga., Aug. 30 (AP)—A Republican presidential preferential primary will be held in Georgia next spring—the first of its kind in the south since reconstruction days — Republican National Committee Wilson Williams disclosed today.

Williams, who is president of the Medley Manufacturing company, makers of textile machinery, said he had polled a majority of the Georgia Central committee and found "no opposition" to a primary.

"Unquestionably there will be a preferential primary next spring—probably in April," said Williams.

The manufacturer, who also is secretary of the state central committee, said the primary would be financed by Georgia Republicans, without aid from the national party. Part of the expense may be met by levying fees on candidates, and the remainder would be underwritten by the Georgia party.

New Premier Of Iran Is Elected

Tehran, Aug. 30 (AP)—Ahmed Qavam was reelected premier today by the Iranian parliament. He got 78 of the 116 votes.

Qavam resigned Wednesday under a law requiring the premier to quit whenever a new parliament (Majlis) is elected.

Qavam first was chosen premier January 26, 1946, by a parliamentary vote of 52 to 51. He has headed a succession of cabinets. For months he served also as foreign minister and minister of the interior.

During his administration, the Iranian government has been warring Soviet occupation troops withdrawn from its territory in the midst of United Nations consideration of their presence there, and has put down revolts among Qashqali tribesmen of the southwest and the Azerbaijan in the north.

Qavam's reelection came at a secret session of the new parliament. He now must appear before Shah Reza Pahlavi for his approval, which was deemed certain.

Royal approval would be followed by Qavam's formation of a new cabinet.

Pennsy Revenue Drops During July

Philadelphia, Aug. 30 (AP)—"A return to normal passenger business" is reflected in the Pennsylvania railroad's drop in revenue of nearly $4,000,000 during July from the same period last year says a company spokesman.

A decrease of $3,938,348 during last month brought total passenger revenues to $14,289,270, the spokesman said in a statement issued yesterday.

However, the company was out of the red for the fourth month this year with a net income of $920,221 but reported a deficit of $8,090,278 for the first seven months of 1947. This compares with $2,358,512 net income for July 1946 and a 1946 seven month deficit of $21,150,445.

4 MAROONED IN CARIBBEAN

Miami, Fla., Aug. 30 (AP)—Four air travelers and their gasless plane were still on islands in the Caribbean today waiting for a banana boat because the navy and coast guard were agreed their plight did not constitute an emergency.

The troubles of the four began after they had dropped one of their party, a "Mr. Parker," at lonely Grand Cayman and then set off for Swan Island to prospect a possible site for a cattle quarantine station.

They had some difficulty finding the island—90 miles east of British Honduras—and arrived last Monday gasless. Immediately they set up a howl for fuel. The navy and coast guard said no. So the three—Albert James of Orlando, William A. Kruzen and his father, I. A. Kruzen of Tampa—are sitting it out.

For company, the three have the personnel of the U. S. weather station at Swan. Kruzen went on the air via the plane's two-way radio to report to his wife in Tampa.

"This is a God-forsaken place," he said.

FIRE DESTROYS SOUTH WING OF PRINCESS' HOME

London, Aug. 30 (AP)—A spectacular fire destroyed the entire south wing and caved in the ancient roof of Princess Elizabeth's bridal home at suburban Sunninghill Park today. Authorities said they had not discarded the possibility that the blaze was touched off by an incendiary with political motives.

Ten fire companies battled the blaze for hours, pumping thousands of gallons of water from nearby Mirror lake before they brought it under control at dawn. Flames shooting 50 feet into the air could be seen for miles.

The south wing of the stately old Georgian house, which was being refurbished as a home for the Princess and Lt. Philip Mountbatten, was enveloped in flames when the firemen arrived shortly after midnight.

Sure Of Arson

A National Fire Service officer said he was "satisfied that there is no question of arson," but official sources disclosed that detectives of the Criminal Investigation Department had been instructed to inquire into every possible cause, including arson inspired by political motives.

One unofficial theory was that a lighted cigarette may have been dropped in a rubbish pile by one of the workers engaged in remodeling the 25-room mansion, which has been unoccupied.

D. M. Taylor, regional National Fire Service commander, said the construction of the building hampered the firemen. The mansion was built 175 years ago. He said the construction was one of cavity walls with a false roof and flaring eaves which left a void between the walls and the roof.

STATE TROOPER FATALLY HURT IN AUTO CRASH

(By The Associated Press)
Clouded skies and predicted showers failed to dampen the Labor Day week-end spirit as Pennsylvanians thronged resort points in the commonwealth and nearby states for the summer season's last vacation fling.

Highways, railroads and airlines were taxed to capacity. Yearly predictions of "record breaking" crowds, the annual scramble for seats on buses and trains and a warning by State Police Commissioner C. M. Wilhelm of "the heaviest week-end traffic in history" accompanied the weatherman's forecast of scattered showers today. However, the skies were due to clear by tonight and somewhat warmer temperatures were in store tonight and tomorrow.

Trooper Is Killed
One traffic fatality was reported in the state. Pvt. George Donadio, 22, of Reading, a member of Troop B, Pennsylvania State Police, was killed and another policeman, Cpl. J. J. Haggerty and the latter's wife and daughter were injured in a crash near Lancaster last night. Donadio, stationed at the Lancaster barracks, was enroute to Reading, accompanied by the Haggertys when he lost control of his car which mounted an embankment and struck a pole.

Thousands of Philadelphians headed for Jersey shore resorts to lead the parade of Pennsylvanians leaving the state for the week-end. To handle travel to seashore and mountain resorts, the Pennsylvania railroad put an extra section on its on-the-hour trains to and from New York.

A spokesman for the Pennsylvania Greyhound lines announced "We have everything operating that we could lay our hands on."

Various celebrations were scheduled throughout the state.

U.S. FAVORITE IN DAVIS CUP

BY AUSTIN BEALMEAR

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 30 (AP)—The Davis cup, symbol of international tennis supremacy, goes up for grabs for the 36th time here today with the United States a top-heavy favorite to hang on to it for at least another year by turning back the challenge of Australia.

Jack Kramer of Los Angeles and Australia's Dinny Pails, champions of their respective countries, will open the proceedings at 2:15 p. m. (EDT) in the first singles match of the series on the green carpeted center court at the Forest Hills stadium.

In the second match, it will be Ted Schroeder of Glendale, Calif., America's second ranking singles star, against former Australian titleholder John Bromwich, veteran of three previous challenge rounds in the past ten years.

This first-day setup, determined yesterday when Mr. T. Ellsworth Davenport of New York, wife of the referee, pulled the names out of the big silver bowl itself, proved fortunate and somewhat unusual in that it pleased pre-war form.

Bromwich appears to have regained his pre-war form and the Aussies have made no secret of their hope that he would be paired against Schroeder the first time out, thus enhancing their chances for an even break today.

Such an arrangement is equally satisfactory to the Americans, who recall that Schroeder stopped Bromwich in the opener at Melbourne last year when they went on to sweep the series, 5-0, and recapture the cup they had relinquished to the Aussies for the duration in 1939.

Everybody, including the Australians, gives the challengers only an outside chance of taking a match from Kramer, generally accepted as the greatest amateur player in the world today.

That means the visitors will concentrate their attack on Schroeder, both today and on Monday when the pairings will be reversed for the last two singles matches.

YANKS SINCERE IN EFFORTS TO LIBERATE KOREA

By GLEN BABB

(AP Foreign News Analyst)

Washington's call for a four-power conference to hasten Korea's independence turns the spotlight on one of the unhappiest communities in the post-war world. Korea, like Austria, is considered a liberated land, not conquered enemy territory. The Japanese have been driven out but other alien rulers have taken their place, and the coming of real peace, freedom and well being is postponed because the liberators can not or will not agree.

It can not be said that this is the fault of the United States, which shares with Soviet Russia the occupation of this former Japanese possession. The American government and its representatives in Korea have tried continuously and insistently since 1945 to come to some understanding with the Russians which would permit fulfillment of the pledge of Korean freedom made at Cairo in 1943 and repeated and amplified in the Moscow conference of 1945. The newest call is further evidence of the United States' desire to make those promises real and to turn over the burdens of administration to the Koreans themselves as soon as possible.

Reds Unhelpful

The Russian response in the past has been as unhelpful as most Russian responses to allied advances in the postwar period. It requires a considerable degree of optimism to expect that the reply to this invitation will be more encouraging. Nevertheless Moscow's announcement last night of the Russian ratification of peace treaties with the five European axis satellites may herald the opening of a new phase of Soviet diplomacy. It means that Red Army forces must be withdrawn shortly from those countries; it may indicate that the Kremlin now is so confident of its position in the west that it will be ready to deal with other nations on a new basis. Perhaps a greater readiness to consider the consolidation of peace in the Orient may be another corollary.

Korea is the easiest to understand of the postwar examples of divided occupation and rule, because it is the simplest. It is compact geographically, with a homogenous population, a comparatively uncomplex economy. There are only two occupations, instead of the four in Germany and Austria.

Economic Strangulation

But, as in Germany and Austria, the divided rule means economic strangulation. The 38th parallel, across which the armies of the United States and the Soviet Union face each other, separates the north, where the Japanese, using a wealth of waterpower and fuel, had built up one of the most productive industrial communities in the Orient, from the agricultural south. The economy of both sections withers and unrest is intensified.

The major question is whether the Russians will be willing to permit unified government to return to Korea by truly democratic as the western nations understand the word. Both sides use the word freely, but the Russians in Korea, as in eastern Europe, have given it a meaning all their own. If they accepted the American proposals for truly free elections a start could be made on what is sure to be a long and difficult process. The political immaturity of the Koreans is a major adverse factor. When the Americans arrived in southern Korea they found 54 different parties, many of which had only the vaguest programs.

Tattooed Tomcats Taboo, Says Cops

Los Angeles, Aug. 30 (AP)—The city's dogs and cats are still free to reproduce as may be their wont.

The city council turned down a request from a women's group that all animals be tattooed with serial numbers to show their ownership; that dog breeders be charged $12 per breeding; and that they be fined $12 for extra-curricular activities along that line.

Police Lieut. A. H. Wingerter estimated it would require 3,000 more policemen (the current force is 3,500) to properly handle the matter and Deputy City Attorney Lester Lev commented:

"After all, you can't control a tomcat."

Communist Leader Predicts Victory

Budapest, Aug. 30 (AP)—Matyas Rakosi, the ebullient deputy prime minister and Communist leader of Hungary, gaily predicted last night that his party would do all right in tomorrow's parliamentary elections and laughed off suggestions that the polling might be illegal.

He told a news conference that the Hungarian election system was superior to that of Britain or the United States. Of his own party's prospects, he declared:

"Our hopes are somewhat rampant and in three days we shall see that they were not unfounded."

GIANTS PLAY STOOGE AGAIN FOR DODGERS

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

There was a time when it wasn't considered safe for a New York Giant player to be seen walking in the streets of Brooklyn. Today the thankful Flatbush citizenry is ready to spread out the welcome mat for anybody wearing a Giant uniform.

In recent years a Giant appearance at Ebbets field inevitably means a Dodger victory. In the past three years, the Brooks have whipped the Giants 25 times in 29 games on their home grounds. They won nine of 11 in 1945, 10 of 11 last year and thus far this season, have flattened their kindly neighbors six times in seven engagements.

Not only have the Giants been accommodating to the Brooks but they've been especially troublesome to the Dodgers' arch-foes, the St. Louis Cardinals. In 19 engagements with the Redbirds, the Giants have come out on top 10 times. So it is easy to see why the Dodgers' hate for the Giants has turned to love.

Help Brooklyn Lead

The Giants played their usual role of stooges at Ebbets field last night when they bowed to the Brooks 6-3, enabling the Dodgers to increase their National League lead over the idle Cards to seven and a half games.

Jackie Robinson, who contributed a single to the five-run sixth inning rally, stole home while Joe Beggs was warming up in that inning. It was his 24th stolen base and his third steal home this season.

Willard Marshall's 32nd home run was the Giants' 181st of the season. One more will tie the major league record of 182 set by the New York Yankees of 1935.

The Boston Braves moved within a half game of the second-place Cards by tripping the Phillies in Philadelphia 9-2 in a 17-inn. attack.

The Yankees beat Washington 4-3 in the 10th when George McQuinn hit a long fly with one out and the bases loaded to score a runner from third.

Eddie Pellagrini doubled in two runs in the last of the seventh to enable the Red Sox to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics 2-1 in Boston. Lefty Mickey Harris, who went the route for the first time this season, limited the A's to three hits for his fifth victory.

Landing on Ellis Kinder for four runs in the sixth, the Detroit Tigers defeated the Browns in St. Louis 5-4. Fred Hutchinson, who recorded his 13th victory, helped his own cause when he tripped and stole home. Vern Stephens hit his 14th homer for the losers.

The scheduled game between the Chicago White Sox and Indians at Cleveland was postponed by rain. Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati and the Cardinals in the National League were not scheduled. All games were played at night.

Trenton Is Helped By Lancaster Roses

(By The Associated Press)

The Trenton Giants gave the seventh-place Lancaster Red Roses a vote of thanks today for enhancing the Jersey position at the top of the Interstate league.

The lowly Red Roses twice knocked off second-place Wilmington last night 7 to 6 and 10 to 2 while the Giants clubbed third-place Allentown 9 to 3.

Trenton's victory combined with the Blue Rocks' double reverse increased the Giants' lead to six and a half games.

In other games, the Hagerstown Owls and Sunbury split a double-header, the Owls taking the first game 3 to 1 and the Yankees' Paul Dair shading Eddie Oakes in the second, 2 to 1, and the Harrisburg Senators and York White Roses broke even in another twin bill with the Senators eking out a 3 to 2 victory in the opener and York taking the second, 5 to 2.

Jinx Beats Erie At Niagara Falls

(By The Associated Press)

The Erie Sailors, vainly trying to take over second place in the Middle Atlantic Baseball league, fell two games behind the Niagara Falls jinx last night as a "Hyde Park" jinx held good again and the New York state team pulled out a 10-5 win.

The Sailors, who haven't won a game at Niagara Falls since August 2, 1946, got away to a two-run lead in the first inning but the Falls-men turned on the heat to tie the score and their pulled ahead in the second stanza. Tony Busco, who went the distance, was credited with his 14th win.

STEELERS BEAT PACKERS 24-17

(By The Associated Press)

Pittsburgh, Aug. 20 (AP)—After 14 years of trying, the Pittsburgh Steelers finally whipped the powerful Green Bay Packers, 24-17 last night in an exhibition football game which auspiciously launched the second season here of Coach Jock Sutherland.

The hard-fought clash drew 31,507 fans—largest paid crowd to ever see an exhibition game here—while the gross receipts around the $100,000 mark.

Sutherland demonstrated satisfactorily to his club's partisans that he could win without Bill Dudley, the Steelers' great 1946 star who was recently traded to the Detroit Lions.

Clement Brilliant
Johnny Clement, stepped confidently into Dudley's shoes and played brilliantly. Clement averaged 64 per try in carrying the ball 13 times. He completed seven out of 12 tosses for 127 aerial yards. With the help of a tight aerial defense, the Steelers outpassed the Packers 135 yards to 59. The visitors led in yards gained by rushing, 192 to 131.

Clement also scored two of the Steelers' three touchdowns. He got one on a line buck after completing a 38-yard pass, and scored the winning touchdown on a 41-yard jaunt in the final quarter.

Getting off to a fast start, the Steelers scored first early in the first period after blocking a Packer kick. Steve Lach carried it over.

Green Bay made its two touchdowns on a 33-yard romp by Herman Rohrig and an 11-yard drive by Bruce Smith. Field goal honors were shared by Joe Glamp of the Steelers and Ward Cuff of Green Bay, with one apiece.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

New York, Aug. 30 (AP)—With the Giants about to break the major league home run record, Johnny Mize threatening Babe Ruth's mark and pitchers coming up with an epidemic of sore arms from trying to stop the sluggers, there seems to be little doubt that the 1947 baseball is somewhat livelier than its immediate predecessors. The condition of pitching staffs is the clinching argument. They must have been bearing down harder and more often to produce so many sore salary wings at the same stage of the season.

All of which leads this department to wonder why baseball rules don't specify just how lively a ball should be. A golf ball, for instance, must have a velocity of no more than 250 feet per second on a testing apparatus. The "bounce" of tennis and basketballs must come within certain definite limits.

If such tests ever have been made with baseballs, the results should be included among the game's numerous other statistics.

COLORFUL ITEM

Don Sandifer, Louisiana State U. quarterback and clown diver for LSU Aquacade, seems to qualify without question as the college boy's Jimmy Demaret.

Don's garb on an ordinary day, reports Tub Thumper Jim Corbett, consists of powder blue slacks, red and yellow canvas shoes, wide-striped silk shorts (which don't show, of course), an orange sport shirt with a lemon-yellow tie, a purple striped sport coat and a feather-tipped fedora. Because of competition involving socks, he doesn't wear any.

For the first time in years, the official football guide is off the presses before the season starts. . . . The Utica Blue Sox and the Albany Senators stage act two of their Eastern league first place battle this afternoon when they meet at Utica in their second successive double header.

The Blue Sox retained their three and a half game lead by splitting with the Senators last night. The capital city crew took the opener, 6 to 1, for their fourth straight victory this week over the leaders, but the Sox roared back with an 8-4 decision in the second contest.

The teams meet in their third successive double bill Sunday. Albany would have to sweep the four week-end games to take the lead.

Elsewhere last night, the Hartford Chiefs blanked the Binghamton Triplets at Binghamton 2-0, but lost the second game, 5-3; the Scranton Miners swept two at Williamsport, 5-0 and 9-7, while the cellar dwelling Elmira Pioneers gained a split with the Wilkes-Barre Barons at home, winning 3-0, after losing 11-2.

BENDIX FLIERS WING WESTWARD

(By The Associated Press)

Van Nuys, Calif., Aug. 30 (AP)—Thirteen hot planes with pilots to match took off in the cold dawn today on the $25,000 Bendix trophy dash to Cleveland.

The 2,045-mile race attracted a group of the nation's leading speed fliers, including the 1946 Bendix winner, Paul Mantz, Burbank, Calif., and William P. (round the world) Odom, of Roslyn, Long Island.

Two and possibly three women were among the contestants. Mrs. Page Hlavacek of Wilmette, Ill., and Dianna Cyrus of Santa Paula, Calif., were listed as sure starters. Jacqueline Cochran, the Newark, N. J., aviatrix who finished second last year, was toying with the idea of letting Bruce Gimbel, Greenwich, Conn., fly her P-51.

All entries were converted warplanes with the P-51 the apparent favorite of the speedsters. Six wilying Mustangs—including those of Mantz and his hangar mate, Thomas Mayson of Van Nuys—were entered. Three P-38 Lightnings, one P-40 Corsair and one each of the following, A26, P-63 and P-47 Thunderbolt, made up the rest of the fast field.

All were cut down and souped up in the battle against time for the first prize of $10,000. Other purse cuts will be $5,000 for second; $3,000 for third; $2,500 fourth; $1,500 fifth; $1,000 sixth, and $500 for seventh. Moreover, the first woman to finish will receive $1,000.

The winner is figured on elapsed time, with all contestants but one scheduled to start at five minute intervals beginning at 7 a. m. (PST). Mrs. Hlavacek received permission from the other fliers to take off at 4:15 a. m., because she wanted to reach Cleveland in time to participate in another event at the National Air Races today.

Odom, who flew in yesterday from Dallas, Tex., was confident his P-47 Thunderbolt could take the measure of the nation's swiftest.

Bur Mantz was regarded as the pilot to beat. The movie stuntman and charter service operator was flying the same P-51 in which he averaged 435.5 miles an hour in last year's dash.

Chalgrove, England, Aug. 30 (AP)—Bernard Lynch, 29-year-old worker for the Martin-Baker Aircraft company, was shot from the cockpit of a jet plane speeding at more than 500 miles an hour yesterday in a test of a new escape apparatus for pilots of high speed planes.

The ejection apparatus—now standard equipment for Royal Air Force jet planes, never had been tested at such high speed.

Lynch was shot from the plane, seat and all, at an altitude of 12,000 feet. He parachuted to the ground in five minutes.

POSAT ATTACKS LIVING COSTS

(By The Associated Press)

Philadelphia, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Patriotic Order Sons of America declares there must be federal action to combat the "mounting cost of living."

A resolution adopted yesterday by delegates at the organization's 100th anniversary convention called upon the federal government for formulation of:

"An immediate policy designed to restore as soon as possible a normal economic standard for our people, and to encourage thereby greater economy without sacrifice of our essential requirements in protecting and preserving our standard of living and the safety of our nation."

For Immigration Quotas
This group also adopted resolutions commending the United States' fight against the spread of communism and the "noble purposes" of the United Nations in calling for a strict adherence to immigration quotas.

About immigration, the POSA suggested the United States help direct Europe's needy to Australia and certain South American countries that are "eagerly seeking such immigrants for colonization and expansion."

"It appears," the resolution said, "that many displaced persons have legally or illegally entered the United States in recent years, and that the nations of Europe and Asia are in need of re-establishing their economies with reasonable aid until they can become self-sustaining."

The Society declared in a statement yesterday that "we believe that no nation can survive as a government of the people, by the people, for the people that relies upon weapons of destruction to maintain its democratic way of life."

GIANTS PLAY STOOGE AGAIN FOR DODGERS

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

There was a time when it wasn't considered safe for a New York Giant player to be seen walking in the streets of Brooklyn. Today the thankful Flatbush citizenry is ready to spread out the welcome mat for anybody wearing a Giant uniform.

In recent years a Giant appearance at Ebbets field inevitably means a Dodger victory. In the past three years, the Brooks have whipped the Giants 25 times in 29 games on their home grounds. They won nine of 11 in 1945, 10 of 11 last year and thus far this season, have flattened their kindly neighbors six times in seven engagements.

Not only have the Giants been accommodating to the Brooks but they've been especially troublesome to the Dodgers' arch-foes, the St. Louis Cardinals. In 19 engagements with the Redbirds, the Giants have come out on top 10 times. So it is easy to see why the Dodgers' love for the Giants has turned to hate.

Help Brooklyn Lead

The Giants played their usual role of stooges at Ebbets field last night when they bowed to the Brooks 6-3, enabling the Dodgers to increase their National league lead over the Cardinals to seven and a half games. Jackie Robinson, who contributed a single to the five-run sixth inning rally, stole home while Joe Beggs was warming up in that inning. It was his 24th stolen base and his third steal home this season.

Willard Marshall's 32nd home run was the Giants' 181st of the season. One more will tie the major league record of 182 set by the New York Yankees of 1936.

The Boston Braves moved within a half game of the second-place Cardinals by tripping the Phillies in Philadelphia 9-2 in a 17-hit attack.

The Yankees beat Washington 4-3 in the 10th when George McQuinn hit a long fly with one out and the bases loaded to score a runner from third.

Athletics Lose

Eddie Pellagrini doubled in two runs in the last of the seventh to enable the Red Sox to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics 2-1 in Boston. Lefty Mickey Harris, who went the route for the first time this season, limited the A's to three hits for his fifth victory.

Landing on Ellis Kinder for four runs in the sixth, the Detroit Tigers defeated the Browns in St. Louis 5-4. Fred Hutchinson, who recorded his 13th victory, helped his own cause when he tripped and stole home. Vern Stephens hit his 14th homer for the losers.

The scheduled game between the Chicago White Sox and Indians at Cleveland was postponed by rain. Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati and the Cardinals in the National league were not scheduled. All games were played at night.

The Trenton Giants gave the seventh-place Lancaster Red Roses a vote of thanks today for enhancing the Jerseyites position at the top of the Interstate league.

Trenton's victory combined with the Blue Rocks' double reverse increased the Giants' lead to six and a half games.

In other games, the Hagerstown Owls and Sunbury split a double-header, the Owls taking the first game 3 to 1 and the Yankees' Paul Dair shading Eddie Owar in the second, 2 to 1, and the Harrisburg Senators and York White Roses broke even in another twin bill with the Senators eking out a 3 to 2 victory in the opener and York taking the second, 5 to 2.

POSITIVE ATTACKS LIVING COSTS

Philadelphia, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Patriotic Order Sons of America declares there must be federal action to combat the "mounting cost of living."

A resolution adopted yesterday by delegates at the organization's 100th anniversary convention called upon the federal government for formulation of:

"An immediate policy designed to restore as soon as possible a normal economic standard for our people, and to encourage thereby greater economy without sacrifice of our essential requirements in protecting and preserving our standard of living and the safety of our nation."

For Immigration Quotas
This group also adopted resolutions commending the United States' fight against the spread of communism and the "noble purposes" of the United Nations in calling for a strict adherence to immigration quotas.

About immigration, the POSA suggested the United States help direct Europe's needy to Australia and certain South American countries that are "eagerly seeking such immigrants for colonization and expansion."

"It appears," the resolution said, "that many displaced persons have legally or illegally entered the United States in recent years, and that the nations of Europe and Asia are in need of re-establishing their economies with re-establishing aid until they can become self-sustaining."

NEWCOMERS ARE LEADING STARS

BY BEN FUNK

Salt Lake City, Aug. 30 (AP)—A physically-handicapped Michigan campaigner and two young war veterans who came home to a future on golf's gold circuit were outshooting the favorites today as the star-studded western open tournament entered the second round.

Out in front with five-under par 67s for the first 18-hole lap were Edward Furgol, the well-known Pontiac, Mich., youth with the short left arm; Al Smith, young navy veteran out of Winston Salem, N. C., and John Palmer, former B29 gunner from Bodin, N. C.

Arrayed behind these leaders were virtually all the nation's top pros and amateurs. Thirty-one cracked par in the opening round but a few, notably National Open champion Lew Worsham of Washington, D. C., failed to go under the regulation 72.

The starting field of 128, from which ten withdrew yesterday, will be slashed to the low 76 at the conclusion of today's round. Two more circuits of the scenic, 6,363-yard Salt Lake city country club course are scheduled tomorrow and Monday.

65,000 PARADE UP 5TH AVENUE IN LEGION SHOW

New York, Aug. 30 (AP)—Legionnaires, the serious speechmaking of their convention concluded with pleas for preparedness by the nation's three top military leaders, turned today to the "big parade" up Fifth avenue with more than 1,000,000 spectators expected to watch the 65,000 marchers.

General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower, who received a tumultuous welcome from the convention, coupled his endorsement of universal military training with a statement that "I do not want to be understood as seeing a global war as an immediate threat."

"It is fully as important to prevent blind hysteria and fear from influencing us as it is to look soberly in the face and thus develop logical conclusions from the survey," he declared.

No More of Gain

The wartime supreme commander and present chief of staff said that "no great nation is today in position deliberately to provide a long and exhausting conflict with any hope of gain."

"To work for peace and eventual disarmament, but at the same time to look well to our own security in a troubled world, is thus a central problem of the day," Eisenhower declared.

He added, however, that "as long as deliberate aggression against the rights of free men and the existence of free government may be a part of the international picture, we must be prepared for whatever this may finally mean to us."

"On our security," he said, "depends the existence and growth of a free world."

"The reverse of this statement is equally true. I firmly believe that the only prescription for absolute security for any nation, including our own, is international understanding and cooperation."

Farewell Appearance

Eisenhower described his address as "something of an official farewell" since it was probably his last public appearance as chief of staff before assuming the presidency of Columbia university in January.

Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz asked the Legion to act "as sentinels to see that no one branch of the armed forces is permitted to decline to the point where it cannot carry out its share of responsibility for national security."

Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, commanding general of the army air forces, who also endorsed universal military training, expressed concern about the air forces' replacement requirements.

FIRE DESTROYS SOUTH WING OF PRINCESS' HOME

London, Aug. 30 (AP)—A spectacular fire destroyed the entire south wing and caved in the ancient roof of Princess Elizabeth's bridal home at suburban Sunninghill Park today. Authorities said they had not discarded the possibility that the blaze was touched off by an incendiary with political motives.

Ten fire companies battled the blaze for hours, pumping thousands of gallons of water from nearby Mirror lake before they brought it under control at dawn. Flames shooting 50 feet into the air could be seen for miles.

The south wing of the stately old Georgian house, which was being refurbished as a home for the Princess and Lt. Philip Mountbatten, was enveloped in flames when the firemen arrived shortly after midnight.

Sure Of Arson

A National Fire Service officer said he was "satisfied that there is no question of arson," but official sources disclosed that detectives of the Criminal Investigation Department had been instructed to inquire into every possible cause, including arson inspired by political motives.

One unofficial theory was that a lighted cigarette may have been dropped in a rubbish pile by one of the workers engaged in remodeling the 25-room mansion, which has been unoccupied.

D. M. Taylor, regional National Fire Service commander, said the construction of the building hampered the firemen. The mansion was built 175 years ago. He said the construction was one of cavity walls with a false roof and flaring eaves which left a void between the walls and the roof.

New Premier Of Iran Is Elected

Tehran, Aug. 30 (AP)—Ahmed Qavam was reelected premier today by the Iranian parliament. He got 78 of the 116 votes.

Qavam resigned Wednesday under a law requiring the premier to quit whenever a new parliament (Majlis) is elected.

Qavam first was chosen premier January 26, 1946, by a parliamentary vote of 52 to 51. He has headed a succession of cabinets. For months he served also as foreign minister and minister of the interior.

During his administration, the Iranian government has seen wartime Soviet occupation troops withdrawn from its territory in the midst of United Nations consideration of their presence there, and has put down revolts among Qashqal tribesmen of the southwest and the Azerbaijan in the north.

Qavam's reelection came at a secret session of the new parliament.

He now must appear before Shah Reza Pahlavi for his approval, which was deemed certain.

Royal approval would be followed by Qavam's formation of a new cabinet.

Pennsy Revenue Drops During July

Philadelphia, Aug. 30 (AP)—"A return to normal passenger business" is reflected in the Pennsylvania railroad's drop in revenue of nearly $4,000,000 during July from the same period last year, says a company spokesman.

A decrease of $3,938,348 during last month brought total passenger revenues to $14,289,270, the spokesman said in a statement issued yesterday.

However, the company was out of the red for the fourth month this year with a net income of $920,221 but reported a deficit of $8,090,278 for the first seven months of 1947. This compares with $2,358,312 net income for July 1946 and a 1946 seven month deficit of $21,150,445.

4 MAROONED IN CARIBBEAN

Miami, Fla., Aug. 30 (AP)—Four air travelers and their gasless plane were still on islands in the Caribbean today waiting for a banana boat because the navy and coast guard were agreed their plight did not constitute an emergency.

The troubles of the four began after they had dropped one of their party, a "Mr. Parker," at Lonely Grand Cayman and then set off for Swan Island to prospect a possible site for a cattle quarantine station.

They had some difficulty finding the island—90 miles east of British Honduras—and arrived last Monday gasless. Immediately they set up a howl for fuel. The navy and coast guard said no. So the three—Albert James of Orlando, William A. Kruzen and his father, I. A. Kruzen of Tampa—are sitting it out.

For company, the three have the personnel of the U. S. weather station at Swan. Kruzen went on the air via the plane's two-way radio to report to his wife in Tampa.

"This is a God-forsaken place," he said.

U.S. FAVORITE IN DAVIS CUP

BY AUSTIN BEALMEAR

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 30 (AP)—The Davis cup, symbol of international tennis supremacy, goes up today for the 36th time here to day with the United States a top-heavy favorite to hang on to it for at least another year by turning back the challenge of Australia.

Jack Kramer of Los Angeles and Australia's Denny Pals, champions of their respective countries, will open the proceedings at 2:15 p. m. (EDT) in the first singles matches of the series on the green carpeted center court at the Forest Hills stadium.

In the second match, it will be Ted Schroeder of Glendale, Calif., America's second ranking singles star, against former Australian titleholder John Bromwich, veteran of three previous challenge rounds in the past ten years.

This first-day setup, determined yesterday when Mr. T. Ellsworth Davenport of New York, wife of the referee, pulled the names out of the big silver bowl itself, proved fortunate and somewhat unusual in that it pleased everybody concerned.

Regains Pre-War Form

Bromwich appears to have regained his pre-war form and the Aussies have made no secret of their hope that he would be paired against Schroeder the first time out, thus enhancing their chances for an even break today.

Such an arrangement is equally satisfactory to the Americans, who recall that Schroeder stopped Bromwich in the opener at Melbourne last year when they went on to sweep the series, 5-0, and recapture the cup they had relinquished to the Aussies for the duration in 1939.

Everybody, including the Australians, gives the challengers only an outside chance of taking a match from Kramer, generally accepted as the greatest amateur player in the world today.

That means the visitors will concentrate their attack on Schroeder, both today and on Monday when the pairings will be reversed for the last two singles matches.

President Leaves For Brazil Sunday

Washington, Aug. 30 (AP)—President Truman will take off tomorrow on a flying trip to Brazil, where he will address the final session of the Inter-American defense conference and a joint meeting of the Brazilian Congress during a one-week stay.

The host nation's legislators will hear Mr. Truman at 2 p. m. Eastern Standard Time (4 p. m. Brazilian time) next Friday, the White House announced late yesterday.

His other major speech will be made to the defense conference delegates at 8:30 a. m. Eastern Standard Time next Tuesday. Later the same day he will talk informally at a luncheon for the delegates and Brazilian officials aboard the battleship Missouri.

The Presidential party, which includes Mrs. Truman and Margaret Truman, will leave Washington at 8 a. m. (EST) tomorrow aboard the White House airliner Independence. After an overnight stop at Port of Spain, Trinidad, the plane will fly on to Rio de Janeiro.

YANKS SINCERE IN EFFORTS TO LIBERATE KOREA

By GLEN BABB

(AP Foreign News Analyst)

Washington's call for a four-power conference to hasten Korea's independence turns the spotlight on one of the unhappiest communities in the post-war world. Korea, like Austria, is considered a liberated land, not conquered enemy territory. The Japanese have been driven out but other alien rulers have taken their place, and the coming of real peace, freedom and well being is postponed because the liberators can not or will not agree.

It can not be said that this is the fault of the United States, which shares with Soviet Russia the occupation of this former Japanese possession. The American government and its representatives in Korea have tried continuously and insistently since 1945 to come to some understanding with the Russians which would permit fulfillment of the pledge of Korean freedom made at Cairo in 1943 and repeated and amplified in the Moscow conference of 1945. The newest call is further evidence of the United States' desire to make those promises real and to turn over the burdens of administration to the Koreans themselves as soon as possible.

Reds Unhelpful

The Russian response in the past has been as unhelpful as most Russian responses to allied advances in the postwar period. It requires a considerable degree of optimism to expect that the reply to this invitation will be more encouraging. Nevertheless, Moscow's announcement last night of the Russian ratification of peace treaties with the five European axis satellites may herald the opening of a new phase of Soviet diplomacy. It means that Red Army forces must be withdrawn shortly from those countries; it may indicate that the Kremlin now is so confident of its position in the west that it will be ready to deal with other nations on a new basis. Perhaps a greater readiness to consider the consolidation of peace in the Orient may be another corollary.

Korea is the easiest to understand of the postwar examples of divided occupation and rule, because it is the simplest. It is compact geographically, with a homogenous population, a comparatively uncomplicated economy. There are only two occupations, instead of the four in Germany and Austria.

Economic Strangulation

But, as in Germany and Austria, the divided rule means economic strangulation. The 38th parallel, across which the armies of the United States and the Soviet Union face each other, separates the north, where the Japanese, using a wealth of waterpower and fuel, had built up one of the most productive industrial communities in the Orient, from the agricultural south. The economy of both sections withers and unrest is intensified.

The major question is whether the Russians will be willing to permit unified government to return to Korea by truly democratic as the western nations understand the word. Both sides use the word freely, but the Russians in Korea, as in eastern Europe, have given it a meaning all their own. If they accepted the American proposals for truly free elections a start could be made on what is sure to be a long and difficult process. The political immaturity of the Koreans is a major adverse factor. When the Americans arrived in southern Korea they found 54 different parties, many of which had only the vaguest programs.

Tattooed Tomcats

Taboo, Says Cops

Los Angeles, Aug. 30 (AP)—The city's dogs and cats are still free to reproduce as may be their wont.

The city council turned down a request from a women's group that all animals be tattooed with serial numbers to show their ownership; that dog breeders be charged $12 per breeding; and that they be fined $12 for extra-curricular activities along that line.

Police Lieut. A. H. Wingerter estimated it would require 3,000 more policemen (the current force is 3,500) to properly handle the matter and Deputy City Attorney Lester Lev commented:

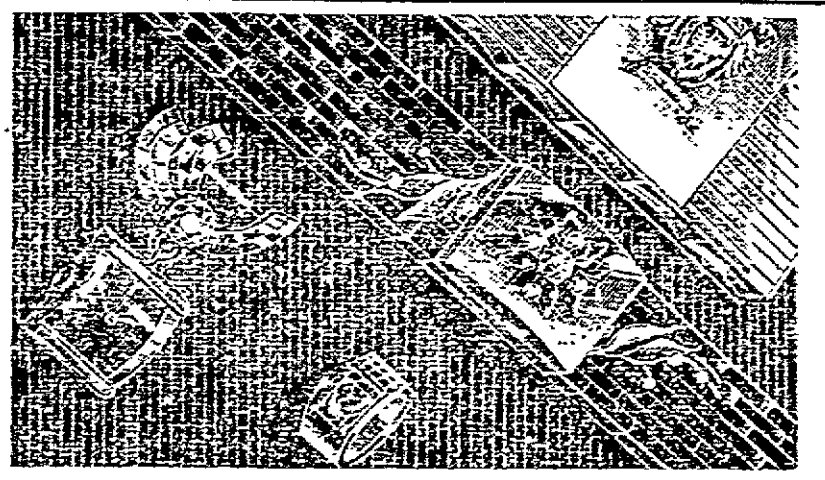

"After all, you can't control a tomcat."

Communist Leader Predicts Victory

Budapest, Aug. 30 (AP)—Matyas Rakosi, the ebullient deputy prime minister and Communist leader of Hungary, gaily predicted last night that his party would do all right in tomorrow's parliamentary elections and laughed off suggestions that the polling might be illegal.

He told a news conference that the Hungarian election system was superior to that of Britain or the United States. Of his own party's prospects, he declared:

"Our hopes are somewhat rampant and in three days we shall see that they were not unfounded."

Just Folks

The Poet of the People
By EDGAR A. GUEST
GIVING AND GETTING

The story of our entire lives may be centrally told about this business of giving and getting. We give, or exchange, for everything that we are and have. We give of our time and strength to earn an income, in order to give to get!

We cannot get anything without giving in some way or other. And this is as it should be. The good worker is proud of the service that he is able to give, and in return he gets happiness beyond the mere wage. Labor and remuneration should always be a happy exchange.

I knew people who have hedged themselves into a solitary place, and then wonder why they are so unhappy, have so few friends, and little, or no attention, is paid to them. You have to be friendly to have friends. You have to want them. And you have to give for what you get. You don't pick up rubies, or diamonds on the street. Neither do you find friends that way. You have to dig deep into life for them.
You have to look about you, and select those who most nearly fit your hope in life.

If you give too little, never expect too much! It is surprising how much you get in return when you give without any expectation of getting anything in return, outside the mere pleasure and happiness of having given. The only way we know how to get anything is to give. People just don't go around dropping things in other people's pockets just for the fun of it!

Naturally the more we give the more we get. Perhaps not at once.
We must never be too anxious to get a return. In time it always does come to one. A remembered kindness, perhaps, and an unexpected encouraging word—who can measure such gifts? Who can appraise their value? Their return in kind is as sure as that light follows darkness.

Whenever we give value we get value in return. After years of practice and continual study, the artist, musician, or writer, after having given of his, or her, life blood, finally gains recognition and gets both satisfaction and profit from all that has been given.

The Surgeon, who has watched long and anxiously over his patient, knows that what he is going to be paid for his services, cannot possibly repay him for all he has given of himself, nor for the satisfaction of having, perhaps, saved a human life. That's like that something that isn't in the pay envelope.

Today's Talk

CURE FOR ANGER

When you're angry, here's a plan:
Write the bitterest note you can.
Spill your malice there and then;
Pour it through your fountain pen.
Was it real or fancied wrong?
Tell your thoughts in language strong.

Search the paper with your rage.
Fill with insult every page.
Use the ugliest words you know.
Then—don't let the missive go.
That's a letter you should keep
'Til you've had a good night's sleep.
Reading with a calmer mind
In the morning you may find
You are glad you didn't send
All that bitterness you'd penned.
Coffee? Tear that letter up!
You'll enjoy a second cup.

Riding with Russell

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
BY FREDERICK C. RUSSELL
Member S. C. E.

Perhaps those buttons for operating car windows are just to compensate for those some drivers have lost.

Explains An Oddity

One of the mysterious conditions leading to motor misbehavior is a lot of skipping shortly after the engine is started. Things go off normally when the starter-button is pressed, but shortly after the engine starts missing. It always suggests trouble with the choke, but if there is no black smoke at the exhaust the observing driver knows that the choke valve isn't sticking in a closed position. He may, however, be a little on the lazy side and not bother to lift the hood. Were he to exert himself to this extent he would find water leaking from the upper radiator hose of a heater connection and blowing back over the spark plugs. The engine still isn't hot enough to burn off this water as it would a few minutes later.

Back To Fundamentals

If you have wondered why some repair jobs have been turning out badly let me quote from a letter just received from a chap who has decided that he is a mechanic even though he hasn't even graduated from the school of hard knocks.
"How can I hook up the ignition wires in the right order without trying them different ways?" he asks. I had to read it over again before conceding that he really doesn't know about the engine's firing order. First he must know (often it is stamped on the motor) and then note which way the rotor of the distributor turns when the engine's shaft rotates. From this point it is merely a matter of running each successive wire to the plug called for by the firing order.
If all the wires are removed and you start from scratch, turn the engine so that the No. 1 piston is at the top of its stroke with both valves closed. Then run the No. 1 ignition wire to the contact of the distributor head just above the point where the rotor is resting.

After this the engine should be timed for accurate ignition, of course.

Static Shock Is Out

Having trouble with static shock
when you or your passengers touch metal parts of the car? If so, you may already know about the static eliminator strips which can be attached to the frame. But perhaps you do not know that such strips are likely to interfere with the car's radio reception, since they carry off a static charge to the ground every time the car slows down. Makers of static eliminator strips also make special static eliminating powder which can be blown into the tires
with the aid of a special pump.
This arrangement they prefer since there is no interference with radio reception.

Mechanic Joe Speaking

"If your new car develops an annoying noise amidship there will be a strong temptation to assume that this is due to the transmission. I have heard of two cases lately where service stations have decided to dig into the gears in an effort to check a similar noise, later discovering that the trouble originates in the exhaust system. Improper alignment of the exhaust pipe, muffler and tail pipe resulted in vibration which, as you probably know, is the basis of noise. Realigning these parts provided an easy, permanent cure."

Planning For Safety

How to get maximum acceleration from the car, when an emergency demands the promptest possible action, calls for close attention to some of the details in car behavior.
The trick lies largely in proper handling of the accelerator pedal.
Go down on it sharply, then ease off until the engine has had a chance to take the extra fuel that has been shot into the carburetor throat. There is no gain in holding the pedal down steadily. Also when you press be sure you really are opening the throttle and not just pushing on the pedal hinge or fulcrum. Every now and again take a look at the flooring around the pedal to make sure that the mat hasn't bunched up so as to restrict the accelerator's movement. As for the engine itself, remember that the best pick-up is just under the sharp ping.

Both Need Dusting

One of the little things that any motorist ought to watch out for in seeking better braking control of his car is the accumulation of dust in the brake drums. Rather I should warn against the risk in removing dust from just one brake drum, for this naturally serves to unbalance
the braking forces. Dust is an abrasive and useful in the frictional process which effects deceleration.
When a wheel is off for inspection
it is customary to remove the dust,
but next time this happens remember to remove the dust from the opposite brake as well.

Speculating On Breaks

What happens when certain parts of the car break is something we could all give more attention to.
I have had a clutch pedal shaft break in such a way that the clutch couldn't be disengaged and it was quite a job driving home by stopping and restarting the engine every time the car had to be stopped.

On another trip the brakes failed completely. I almost had to jam the transmission gears in order to stop, but wasn't going fast at the time. The hand brake saved the day.

Any motorist who is neglecting the universal joints should prepare for a surprise some time if the propeller shaft fails to the road when the car is running. I heard of one case where the shaft dropped down, stuck in the road and brought the car to an abrupt halt. Fortunately, the break occurred when the car
was slowly going around a corner.
On some cars the shaft is enclosed in a tube, but even this might be broken by disjuncted parts inside.
A great many people do not seem to realize that a broken rear spring can cause a lot of trouble by letting the body drop low enough for the nearest fender to scrape the tire.

Braking To Match

One of the finest things in the way of car controls was the plan on several cars some years ago whereby the driver could select the braking power most suited to the occasion
as well as to his personal tastes.
This is easily possible with a power braking system, but with passenger car brakes now restricted to simple hydraulic control by foot pressure we have a situation wherein too much depends on how the operator handles his right leg and foot. Some people do not get sufficient braking from some cars because they just don't press firmly enough. Others are constantly over-braking because of that heavy foot action. Brakes should be adjustable so as to match the driver, and road conditions.

The best we can do under present conditions is to be aware of the lack so that we can do what's necessary to compensate. It calls for frequent re-adjustment of our braking habits.

ERIC JOHNSTON SEEKS CHANGE IN MOVING PICTURES

By MAX HALL

Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—The film industry is in a time of change and agitation.

It is especially shocked over its sinking foreign sales.

During this troubled period the No. 1 spokesman, salesman, and front man of the industry is Eric Johnston, a handsome, suave, 50-year-old manufacturer from Spokane, Wash., who knew nothing about movie problems until two years ago.

Johnston is president of three big film associations. He is often called the "czar" of the film industry.

He has no power to compel Hollywood studios to produce certain kinds of pictures, but he has ideas and he has powers of persuasion.

One of his ideas: "We in Hollywood have to make more realistic motion pictures if we want to continue our leadership in the world." Johnston wants the movies to show how Americans really live.

Express "Ideas"

He also wants the movies to "enlighten," to express "ideas" while they entertain audiences. He would like to see more pictures that present "problems," such as anti-Semitism and labor-management relations.

Sitting in his pale-green Washington office, Johnston told about his recent trip to Europe.

He said Europeans want American pictures that portray American life accurately—the skylines of New York and Chicago and San Francisco, the farms, the factories, the people and their radios and washing machines and automobiles.

He said they are tired of war pictures. They are less and less interested in films about gangsters and extremely wealthy people. They are not so fond of fantasies.

Now, why is it so important that Europeans want?

Need Vast Audiences

Because Hollywood—said Johnston—is "really a world organization."

Johnston said good movies cost so much to make that they don't pay any profit without vast audiences—audiences bigger than any one country can provide, even America. In other words, he said our producers must have a world market or go "badly in the red."

Says Johnston: "I feel that censorship, although it is still an important branch, is less important than certain other things."

Those things are: (1) Foreign trade; (2) visual education; (3) cooperation among all elements of the industry; (4) an effort to make movies "a vehicle of expressing ideas, both at home and abroad."

lining. It should check the vibration which results in the grunting sound. Q. I have been told that butter will soften tar spots on the car's body. Is this true? Wm.L.L.

A. Butter or lard will do the trick. But why not just use regular tar remover which you can purchase at any filling station or accessory store? The trick in removing tar is to allow the remover to remain on it until it is softened. You will need to re-polish and re-wax cleaned parts.

Q. I am very dissatisfied with the power output of the engine of my car following carbon removal and valve grinding. The mechanic was very careful and some of the valves replaced with authorized factory parts. Timing is well advanced, yet the engine seems to be dead. This is especially true as the motor warms up. Would a new carburetor help? K.H.G.

A. You don't need to go to this much trouble. Just give the valve tappets a little more clearance. They are set too close.

Q. What would cause kick-back in the steering wheel? It is getting to be very troublesome. L.B.N.

A. This could be due to loose wheels but is more likely the result of worn king pins, worn shock absorbers, or the wrong grade of lube in the steering gear.

It was announced that the contest for junior bands was won by the junior band of Brooks Doll Ebling Post 33 of Bellefonte, Pa., since no other junior band showed up to oppose the winner.

EX-GI IS HELD FOR SHOOTING ATOMIC PHOTOS

Washington, Aug. 30 (AP)—Arnold Frederick Kivi, a 27-year-old ex-soldier, was held for arraignment before a U. S. Commissioner in New York today on charges of taking "highly confidential photographs" from the Los Alamos, N. M., atomic installations.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, announced Kivi was arrested last night in Brooklyn, where Hoover said FBI agents nabbed 37 photographs and 10 negatives when they searched Kivi's home.

Hoover's announcement said Kivi at first denied having any highly confidential pictures but that he later admitted removing from the Los Alamos project certain classified photographs. Classified documents or pictures are those usually marked secret, confidential or restricted.

Shows Equipment
The FBI director said pictures found in Kivi's possession showed various phases of atomic research equipment used in connection with the bomb and several pictures of visitors to the atomic property.

The first atomic bomb was assembled and tested at Los Alamos. The project still is a major center for atomic research.

Hoover said that Kivi, when first interviewed, said he had made 500 official photographs of various stages of development of the atomic bomb. He later admitted, the FBI director said, that he took the classified photographs when he left the army in February, 1946, and that several weeks later, he became "extremely concerned about the pictures and burned them."

Third Charged This Year
Kivi was in the army from September 1, 1942 until February 6, 1946. After leaving Los Alamos, the FBI said Kivi was employed at the Brookhaven national laboratory of the atomic energy commission at that time.

Patchogue, N. Y. He was relieved of that job immediately, Hoover added, "as a result of the investigation of the prior theft."

Hoover said that a complaint charging Kivi with the theft was filed before the United States commissioner at Santa Fe, N. M. Yesterday.

Kivi was the third person this year to be charged with taking government documents from an atomic project.

ERIC JOHNSTON SEEKS CHANGE IN MOVING PICTURES

By MAX HALL

Washington, Aug. 29 (AP)—The film industry is in a time of change and agitation.

It is especially shocked over its sinking foreign sales.

During this troubled period the No. 1 spokesman, salesman, and front man of the industry is Eric Johnston, a handsome, suave, 50-year-old manufacturer from Spokane, Wash., who knew nothing about movie problems until two years ago.

Johnston is president of three big film associations. He is often called the "czar" of the film industry.

He has no power to compel Hollywood studios to produce certain kinds of pictures, but he has ideas and he has powers of persuasion.

One of his ideas: "We in Hollywood have to make more realistic motion pictures if we want to continue our leadership in the world."

Johnston wants the movies to show how Americans really live.

Express "Ideas"

He also wants the movies to "enlighten," to express "ideas" while they entertain audiences. He would like to see more pictures that present "problems," such as anti-Semitism and labor-management relations.

Sitting in his pale-green Washington office, Johnston told about his recent trip to Europe.

He said Europeans want American pictures that portray American life accurately — the skylines of New York and Chicago and San Francisco, the farms, the factories, the people and their radios and washing machines and automobiles.

He said they are tired of war pictures. They are less and less interested in films about gangsters and extremely wealthy people. They are not so fond of fantasies.

Now, why is it so important what Europeans want?

Need Vast Audiences

Because Hollywood—said Johnston—is "really a world organization."

Johnston said good movies cost so much to make that they don't pay any profit without vast audiences—audiences bigger than any one country can provide, even America. In other words, he said our producers must have a world market or go "badly in the red."

Says Johnston: "I feel that censorship, although it is still an important branch, is less important than certain other things."

Those things are:

- (1) Foreign trade;
- (2) visual education;
- (3) cooperation among all elements of the industry;
- (4) an effort to make movies "a vehicle of expressing ideas, both at home and abroad."

Q. I have been told that butter will soften tar spots on the car's body. Is this true? Wm.L.L.

A. Butter or lard will do the trick. But why not just use regular tar remover which you can purchase at any filling station or accessory store? The trick in removing tar is to allow the remover to remain on it until it is softened. You will need to re-polish and re-wax cleaned parts.

Q. I am very dissatisfied with the power output of the engine of my car following carbon removal and valve grinding. The mechanic was very careful and some of the valves replaced with authorized factory parts. Timing is well advanced, yet the engine seems to be dead. This is especially true as the motor warms up. Would a new carburetor help? K.H.G.

A. You don't need to go to this much trouble. Just give the valve tappets a little more clearance. They are set too close.

Q. What would cause kick-back in the steering wheel? It is getting to be very troublesome. L.B.N.

A. This could be due to loose wheels but is more likely the result of worn king pins, worn shock absorbers, or the wrong grade of lube in the steering gear.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern street, Hartford, Conn.

Announce Band, Drum Corps Winners

New York, Aug. 30 (AP)—The boys' and girls' drum and bugle corps sponsored by the Howard C. McCall Post, No. 20, Philadelphia, won the American Legion's junior corps award in competition with 21 junior corps at the annual American Legion convention here.

Second place went to the group sponsored by Upper Darby Post, No. 214 of East Lansdowne, Pa.

The John Lewis Shade Post, Clearfield, Pa., which placed third last year in the Legion's annual senior band contest, failed to place in the top trio yesterday.

It was announced that the contest for junior bands was won by the junior band of Brooks Doll Ebling Post 33 of Bellefonte, Pa., since no other junior band showed up to oppose the winner.

EX-GI IS HELD FOR SHOOTING ATOMIC PHOTOS

Washington, Aug. 30 (AP)—Arnold Frederick Kivi, a 27-year-old ex-soldier, was held for arraignment before a U. S. Commissioner in New York today on charges of taking "highly confidential photographs" from the Los Alamos, N. M., atomic installations.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, announced Kivi was arrested last night in Brooklyn, where Hoover said FBI agents nabbed 37 photographs and 10 negatives when they searched Kivi's home.

Hoover's announcement said Kivi at first denied having any highly confidential pictures but that he later admitted removing from the Los Alamos project certain classified photographs. Classified documents or pictures are those usually marked secret, confidential or restricted.

Shows Equipment

The FBI director said pictures found in Kivi's possession showed various phases of atomic research equipment used in connection with the bomb and several pictures of visitors to the atomic project.

The first atomic bomb was assembled and tested at Los Alamos. The project still is a major center for atomic research.

Hoover said that Kivi, when first interviewed, said he had made 500 official photographs of various stages of development of the atomic bomb. He later admitted, the FBI director said, that he took the classified photographs when he left the army in February, 1946, and that several weeks later, he became "extremely concerned about the pictures and burned them."

Third Charged This Year

Kivi was in the army from September 1, 1942 until February 6, 1946. After leaving Los Alamos, the FBI said Kivi was employed at the Brookhaven national laboratory of the atomic energy commission at Patchogue, N. Y. He was relieved of that job immediately, Hoover added, "as a result of the investigation of the prior theft."

Hoover said that a complaint charging Kivi with the theft was filed before the United States commissioner at Santa Fe, N. M. Yesterday

Kivi was the third person this year to be charged with taking government documents from an atomic project.

Alexander Von Der Luft, a former army sergeant, was placed on four years' probation on August 21 after he had pleaded guilty in Pittsburgh. Ernest D. Wallis, a 34-year-old Chicago photographer, also an ex-GI, has yet to be tried on similar charges.

MOVIE UNION STRIFE UNDER FEDERAL PROBE

Los Angeles, Aug. 29 (AP)—The House subcommittee probing Hollywood's labor difficulties today had on record some blunt statements from blunt-spoken Herbert K. Sorrell, president of the striking AFL conference of studio unions.

Said Sorrell yesterday, as he accused film producers of conspiring with the rival AFL International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees:

"Overnight the producers signed up with this organization, giving it a closed shop, a raise in wages and other benefits and notifying all employees that they either had to present a paid-up IATSE card or they didn't work."

"As an example of the close cooperation between the IATSE and the producers—when the IATSE declared a technician set 'hot' the producers immediately hired the IATSE machinists, but when the painters decided a technician set 'hot' they fired the painters and the carpenters (members of Sorrell's CSU).

Hands Tied

"If Eric Johnston were president of the motion picture producers in fact as well as in name, he would settle Hollywood's labor difficulties overnight."

Sorrell declared, however, that Johnston's hands are tied, and studio policy is determined in New York. The union leader asked Rep. Carroll Kearns (R-PA), subcommittee chairman, to subpoena Johnston and ask whether he favored hiring the IATSE machinists—a move which Sorrell claims started the present unrest.

Earlier, two executives of the International Association of Machinists, (a CSU affiliate) D. T. Wayne and Carl W. Rex, asserted that for 10 years the IATSE has attempted to take over the machinists' work.

SUNDAY MIDNIGHT
MONDAY, TUESDAY

Two of film's leading romantic stars are thrillingly together for the first time in their notable screen careers in "Cry Wolf." Warner Bros. forthcoming drama of adventure and romance that opens Monday at the Majestic theatre. They are Errol Flynn and Barbara Stanwyck.

Like the novel, Warner's screen version of "Cry Wolf" tells the story of Sandra Demarest (Barbara Stanwyck) whose young husband, Jim (Richard Basehart) is believed dead. When Sandra arrives at the family's vast and mysterious Massachusetts country estate, she is greeted with open hostility by Jim's uncle Mark (Errol Flynn), lone executor and guardian of Jim's trust. The eerie dangers which both face throughout the film provide a suspenseful background against which the stars play out their deeply moving romance.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
Romance, adventure and an excitement-packed story of the after-effects between Yankee and Rebel factions after the Civil War make for big entertainment in "Romance of Rosy Ridge." M-G-M's new Van Johnson starring vehicle, which opens Wednesday on the Majestic screen.

Van Johnson has a totally new type of characterization in this MacKinley Kantor story of a young school teacher whose buddy dies while fighting with him in the Union Army, and who goes to the latter's Rebel family in Missouri and falls in love with his buddy's sister.

The conflict ensues when Gill MacBean (Thomas Mitchell), father of the dead soldier, discovers that Henry Carson (Johnson) has fought on the Union side.

FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Betty Hutton and John Lund who co-star in "The Perils of Pauline."

The reel and real life, loves and thrills of Pearl White, who dared a thousand deaths to make the movies famous and herself the first queen of the screen, have been thrillingly re-enacted, according to advance reports, in one of Paramount's biggest productions of the season, "The Perils of Pauline." Filmed in the technicolor befitting such a colorful character, the film stars Betty Hutton and John Lund, and opens next Friday at the Majestic theatre.

Fearless, peerless Pearl White, the greatest of the cliff-hangers, became a national heroine in the lusty days when Hollywood was just a lemon grove and the movies were too young to talk. Scorning the use of a double Pearl won the hearts of millions of Americans by tingling their spines as she courageously faced on-rushing locomotives, the spinning teeth of buzz-saws, burning at the stake and, always, that fate-worse-than-death in the form of the sneering mustachioed villain.

DEATH TO RIDE HIGHWAYS OVER LONG WEEK-END

By MAX HALL
(For James Marlow)

Washington, Aug. 30 (P) — This may be the heaviest week-end of auto travel the country has ever seen.

That means millions of families are having fun. It also means a frightful screeching, crashing, tearing and rumbling of steel and glass and human heads and legs and bodies.

Don't turn away from that picture because you are looking right at one of the gravest problems of the age. And Labor Day week-end is a good time to face it.

It was only two years ago that we had gas rationing. Auto plants were slowly, painfully trying to crawl back into peacetime production. Cars were wearing out. Some highways were still almost empty. Today the public roads administration says traffic has climbed back to the peak volume of 1941. In some areas, such as California, traffic has forged past that peak.

Deaths Increase

As the number of cars increased, death surged back, too. Deaths in motor vehicle accidents, after the record of 39,969 in 1941, had dropped to 23,823 in 1943.

The national safety council says deaths went up:

In 1944 to 24,282
In 1945 to 28,076
In 1946 to 33,700

In 1947 to what? Americans watching the carnage caused mainly by law-breaking, drunkenness, and carelessness could take some grim encouragement in the fact that deaths were not increasing as fast as expected.

Deaths in the first half of 1947 were actually less than in the first half of 1946, despite the steady rise in traffic. The death rate per 100,000,000 miles of driving has kept creeping downward.

Hopeful things were happening. One of these was a big improvement in law enforcement. After President Truman's safety conference of May 1946, many policemen, highway patrols, and traffic judges saw the light. They got tougher.

Many Face Arrest

This Labor Day week-end may be one of the toughest that highway law-breakers have ever experienced. The speeders, the drunk drivers, the careless swervers are more liable to get caught before they kill.

Another hopeful thing is the betterment of highways.

Traffic engineers are constantly improving their science. Aroused public opinion has helped provide some necessary funds. Many — though not nearly enough — two or

Lock Haven Flier Lands On Golf Course

Chicago, Aug. 30 (P) — A sudden storm forced Harold Vincent Welch of Lock Haven, Pa., to land his Piper Cub plane on the golf fairway at Lincoln Park here.

Welch, who escaped injury, said he three-lane highways and narrow city streets have been replaced with four-lane "divided" expressways.

The "divided" expressway, in which a strip of grass separates the streams of cars rushing at one another from opposite directions, is the heart and soul of modern traffic engineering.

It is the best solution yet discovered for handling big traffic loads. And it is gradually spreading. It needs to spread faster. For death moves fast indeed.

Romance, adventure and an excitement-packed story of the after-feuds between Yankee and Rebel factions after the Civil War make for big entertainment in "Romance of Rosy Ridge." M-G-M's new Van Johnson starring vehicle, which opens Wednesday on the Majestic screen.

Van Johnson has a totally new type of characterization in this Macaulay Kantor story of a young school teacher whose quaidy dies while fighting with him in the Union Army, and who goes to the latter's Rebel family in Missouri and falls in love with his buddy's sister.

The conflict ensues when Gill MacBean (Thomas Mitchell), father of the dead soldier, discovers that Henry Carson (Johnson) has fought on the Union side.

FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Betty Hutton and John Lund who co-star in "The Perils of Pauline."

The reel and real life, loves and thrills of Pearl White, who dared a thousand deaths to make the movies famous and herself the first queen of the screen, have been thrillingly re-enacted according to advance reports in one of Paramount's biggest productions of the season, "The Perils of Pauline." Filmed in the technicolor befitting such a colorful character, the film stars Betty Hutton and John Lund, and opens next Friday at the Majestic theatre.

Fearless, peerless Pearl White, the greatest of the cliff-hangers, became a national heroine in the luscious days when Hollywood was just a lemon grove and the movies were too young to talk. Scorning the use of a double, Pearl won the hearts of millions of Americans by urging their souls as she courageously faced on-rushing locomotives, the spinning teeth of buzz-saws, burning at the stake and, always, that fate-worse-than-death in the form of the sneering mustache-twirling villain.

DEATH TO RIDE HIGHWAYS OVER LONG WEEK-END

By MAX HALL
(For James Marlow)

Washington, Aug. 30 (AP) — This may be the heaviest week-end of auto travel the country has ever seen.

That means millions of families are having fun.

It also means a frightful screeching, crashing, tearing and crumpling of steel and glass and human heads and legs and bodies.

Don't turn away from that picture because you are looking right at one of the gravest problems of the age. And Labor Day week-end is a good time to face it.

It was only two years ago that we had gas rationing. Auto plants were slowly, painfully trying to crawl back into peacetime production. Cars were wearing out. Some highways were still almost empty. Today, the public roads administration says traffic has climbed back to the peak volume of 1941 in some areas, such as California, traffic has forged past that peak.

Deaths Increase

As the number of cars increased, death surged back, too.

Deaths in motor vehicle accidents, after the record of 39,969 in 1941, had dropped to 23,223 in 1942.

The national safety council says deaths went up:

In 1944 to 24,232

In 1945 to 28,076

In 1946 to 33,700

In 1947 to what?

Americans watching the carnage caused mainly by law-breaking, drunkenness, and carelessness could take some grim encouragement in the fact that deaths were not increasing as fast as expected.

Deaths in the first half of 1947 were actually less than in the first half of 1946, despite the steady rise in traffic. The death rate per 100,000,000 miles of driving has kept creeping downward.

Hopeful things were happening.

One of these was a big improvement in law enforcement. After President Truman's safety conference of May 1946, many policemen, highway patrols and traffic judges saw the light. They got tougher.

Many Face Arrest

This Labor Day week-end may be one of the toughest that highway law-breakers have ever experienced. The speeders, the drunk drivers, the careless swervers are more liable to get caught before they kill.

Another hopeful thing is the betterment of highways.

Traffic engineers are constantly improving their science. Arouse public opinion has helped provide some necessary funds. Many — though not nearly enough — two or
